Taglines: Ableton Live is the most intuitive and intuitive way to record and mix. Thank you for your interest in our products. We hope that you will find the information on this website useful and inspiring. We have now placed Twinkletoes V2.3 on our downloads page. In order to avoid confusion we will only continue to support and update Twinkletoes V2. We also recommend this version over Twinkletoes and Twinkletoes Pro. I really like Twinkletoes, and I've been working with it for years. But as the development team has worked more and more on ReMote, a cross-platform version of Remotex, I felt it was time for a change. We would like to emphasize that the reason for this change is not for performance reasons. The last update to Twinkletoes was June 2011. We're excited to announce that, soon, Twinkletoes will be released as a free app for iOS devices. iOS devices include iPhone, iPod touch and iPad. There's been an update to the VST update page on our website. It's been a busy time in our development. We've taken more time on the GUI for searching for sounds and plug-ins, updated the API for sending plug-in metadata and most importantly, we've changed the UI to the DesignView plug-in. So much work has been put into designing, making and testing the API. If you have any thoughts and suggestions, feel free to comment and help us out. The update to the download page is the result of our decision to make ReMote free. We are excited to announce that, soon, Twinkletoes will be released as a free app for iOS devices. iOS devices include iPhone, iPod touch and iPad. Please let us know if you are interested in trying out the app. We'll start pushing it out soon. What's new: -Fixes Bug Fixes. We've now made the library of sounds compatible with API v2.4.
